Prepared by the Todd 5th Grade Teachers.

Welcome to Fifth Grade!

Attached you will find a list of selections for your summer reading. The list is quite comprehensive, so you will have no difficulty finding a book that appeals to every reading preference and ability level. Some may already be too easy, while others may be best saved for a later time. Please take your time to make an appropriate, enjoyable choice. Keep this list as a resource to help you choose books throughout the school year!

As an incoming fifth grader you are required to:

1. Read at least two books from the attached list
2. Pick books from two different genres
3. Share your readings with a parent
4. Be prepared to discuss orally with your teacher/classmates on the first day of school the following topics:
 - The best thing that happened in the book is...
 - What I like best/least about this plot is...
 - What I liked best/least about one character is...
 - Would you recommend the book to a friend?

Have a wonderful summer! Enjoy your books!

We look forward to seeing you in September!
